

Sandra Cherry, PT

EXPERIENCE BUILDS EXCELLENCE

Graduate: University of Connecticut Storrs, CT
 1990 BS/PT, Magna Cum Laude
 May McMillian Scholarship, Phi Theta Kappa
New Hampshire Technical College
 1985 Associate Degree, Physical Therapy
 President's List

Current Position:
 Universal Physical Therapy, LLC
 Managing Partner, Chief Therapist, Clinical Educator Coordinator

Clinical Experience:
Weeks and Gowen Physical Therapy, Charlestown, NH
 Staff Therapist in a private orthopedic practice, focusing on the treatment of athletes.
Concord Orthopedics, P.A., Concord, NH
 Senior Staff Therapist treating a variety of orthopedic diagnoses. Also active in the revising protocols, supervising PT students, teaching Back School.
Georgetown Child Development Center, Washington, DC
Merrimack Sports Medicine, Haverhill, MA
VA Hospital, Manchester, NH
SAU #43 Newport High School, Newport, NH
 Volunteered as Asst. Varsity Coach, Junior High Basketball Coach, Junior Varsity Head Coach
William J. Moore Regional Services, Manchester, NH
 Children's services: Private school program for physically and mentally challenged children ages 3-21. Position as Physical Therapy Assistant.

Specialties/Areas of Advanced Training:
 Throwing Shoulders and Pitching Mechanics Rehabilitation:
 Training through Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society,
 Florida Marlins Baseball Symposium, NY University, School of Medicine Baseball Symposium
 Orthopaedic Pediatrics
 Manual Therapy
 Orthopaedic and Post Surgical Rehabilitation
 Job Site/Ergonomic Assessment: Back School of Atlanta Certified
 Golf analysis

Affiliations: New Hampshire Technical College, Guest Lecturer
 Member of the American Physical Therapy Association
 Mentor for Franklin Pierce College PT Program

Sharing Special interests:
 It gives me great pleasure to be practicing in my hometown of Newport. Being here allows me to share the area with my family, to be involved in community activities and to continue to practice in a profession I love.

